

Report Outline:

Topic: CSS Nesting Hierarchy Management Without Preprocessors

Presenters: Liezel D. Samaniego

I. Introduction (0:00 - 0:40)

Self-Introduction

- o Greeting and introduction of the speaker
- o Introduction of the topic

What is CSS Nesting?

- o Simple definition of CSS Nesting
- o Why CSS Nesting is useful

II. Concept Explanation (0:40 - 2:00)

CSS Nesting

- o Putting one CSS rule inside another
- o Relationship between parent and child elements

CSS Hierarchy

- o Parent element
- o Child element
- o Nested styles

III. Example & Demonstration (2:00 - 4:15)

Basic Example

- o Show a simple HTML and CSS example
- o Show how CSS nesting works

Simple Demonstration

- o Apply nested CSS to a webpage
- o Show the result in the browser

IV. Conclusion & Key Takeaways (4:15 - 5:00)

Summary

- o CSS Nesting helps organize CSS code
- o It makes styles easier to read and manage

Final Sign-Off

- o Closing statement
- o Thank the audience for listening